1	Warm-up/Craft and Coloring: Title of the Craft: A Mother’s love, a gift for Mother’s Day (The instructions can be seen at the end of this table) A brief intro, explaining that today is the birth anniversary of lady Zahra (SA), and that she is the daughter of our dear Prophet, the wife of Amir-al- Mu’minin, and the mother of Imam Hassan, Imam Hussein, and lady Zainab (PBUT). And that today because of this occasion we would like to make a little token of appreciation for our dear mothers who try to be like lady Zahra (SA), who do so much for us, and love us. By making, this craft we try to show how much we love them and appreciate all the hard work they do every day for us. Nasheed : https://youtu.be/47ErM4yHtzA	25 Minutes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Since the kids arrive at different times, it is suggested that before the start of the official program, any sort of craft that is associated with the occasion is planned for those kids who come earlier to the program. 2. Exalting and appreciating the status of lady Zahra (SA) and a mother. 3. Strengthening children's artistic and practical skills. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Art supplies such as color pencils, crayons and markers 2. Print out the given images at the end of this file per number of participants.

2	Beginning: Salaam my dears, how are you all doing? Welcome to our celebration. We hope that we have a good program, as well as learn new things, and most importantly, we hope that we have a good time together. Like always let us start today's program in the name of God and brighten our celebration by reading the ayah's (verses) of the Quran. Who here knows surah al-kawthar? So, we can all recite along with them. (If no one volunteers, you either can recite the surah or you can play the recitation of the surah, along with the verses being displayed)  أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ (٣) إِنَّ شَاتِنَكَ هُوَ الْأَبْتَرُ (٢) فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَأَنْحَرْ (١) إِنَّا آعْطَيْنَاكَ الْكَوْثَرَ  We seek refuge with Allah from the accursed Shaitan, In the Name of Allah the Beneficent the Merciful, O' (Muhammad), We have granted you abundant virtue. (1) So worship your Lord and make sacrificial offerings. (2) Whoever hates you will himself remain childless. (3) God revealed this surah to the Prophet when God gave the Prophet a precious little girl. In this surah God tells His Prophet and all the people who read these ayahs' that this precious girl is a very special and important gift for the Prophet and all of the people of the world. Do you all know why? Well now, listen carefully! You all know that the only child of our Prophet, which all the offspring and children of the prophet remained, was through lady Zahra (PBUH). Before the birth of lady Zahra, Prophet had a child; however, his child died from a disease. Therefore, this made the Prophet and his beloved wife lady Khadijah very sad. The enemies of the Prophet would make fun of him and would tell him that you do not have a child and your generation will not continue! When God gave lady Zahra (PBUH) to the Prophet, in Surah al-Kawthar	10 Minutes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Seeking means to the Holy Qur'an to illuminate our hearts that is means to salvation. 2. Becoming familiar with surah al-Kawthar, it's meaning and the cause of its revelation 3. Reminding them that before the start of any kind of activity we should say "Bismill allah alrahman al-rahim" and remember God and recite a few verses from the Holy Qur'an. 4. The importance of being familiar with the meanings of the Quranic verses.

God gave the news to the Prophet that this is a great gift for him. The word al-Kawthar, comes from the word "Kasir" which means abundance or plenty! And it meant that God gave the Prophet a very big and an important thing. Now it's good that all of us think to see why this gift that God gave the Prophet was so great and special?

My dears, do you all know what we call the people who are the descendants of the Prophet, meaning that their grandpa or their great-grandpa is the Prophet? Yes, that is right! Seyed and Sadat. Whoever is "seyed" means they are the child of the Prophet. In today's world, we have millions of people who are seyed. This means that the descendants of the Prophet are living all around the world. And no one in history ever had so many children living all around this world. It is interesting to know that these people are the descendants of the Prophet through lady Zahra. Meaning that lady Zahra, is the mother of all the children of the Prophet. This in itself is very important.

More importantly, lady Zahra (SA) is the mother of all our Imam's. Meaning all those who were the best people in history and everyone was guided by them; their mother was lady Zahra (SA)! Also, these great people in history, were all proud that their mother, was the best, the purest, and the greatest women in the world.

We, Muslims and Shia's are also proud that we have such a great mother. We are proud that our religion honors the great status of women. And for us to be the best servant of God, we must know her as the best woman, and ask her to pray for us before God to be great servants and for God to help us all.

She was also a great teacher for all the girls around the world. She taught important things to the women and the girls of her time. Although she was young, many women would go to her, and ask her questions about their life matters. She was a great mother for her children, Imam Hassan, Imam Hussain, lady Zainab and lady Omm-kolthum. She was also a great and devoted wife for Imam Ali (AS). We congratulate the Imam of Our Time (AS) on her birthday, and we ask the Imam of Our Time to pray for us as a gift; so,

5. Emphasis on the exalted status of lady Zahra (SA) and her high position in Islam.
6. The importance of a mother, respecting, showing love, and preparing a gift for our mothers as a means of thanking them for all their hard work.

	we can continue the path of his mother, be good human beings, and always defend the truth and truthful. Well, I have said all of this to tell you that we have all gathered her to celebrate the birth of lady Zahra. We also know this day as Mother’s Day, congratulate our mothers on this day, and buy them gifts. So, this way we give them back something in return for all the great things they have done for us. Well thank God that you have already have something to give as a gift. I am sure your dear mothers will love them since it is handmade, and that is really valuable! Now are you all ready to see the rest of the program?
3	Story: A Patient Teacher lady Fatimah (SA) showed lots of patience and perseverance when teaching others about religious issues. One day, a woman came to her and said: I have an old mother who did something wrong while praying. She has sent me to you, so I can ask you about it. lady Zahra-Peace Be Upon Her answered her question. The women repeated the same question for the second and third time and every time lady Zahra would answer her question with patience and diligence. The women went to the house of lady Zahra 10 times and asked her a question, and lady would answer her question. The woman was embarrassed from going to her house that many times and said: I will no longer bother you with my questions. However, Lady Fatimah may God's peace be upon her said: No come back and ask your questions, no matter how many times you come back to me with a question I will not get upset Because I have heard from my father the Messenger of God (SAWA) who said: when the day of judgment comes, God will gather all the Muslim scholars at one place, and will reward them based on their service they have done to the people. And the one who puts the most time and effort in showing others the right path and the path towards God's satisfaction, will get the greatest reward, and will go to the best places in heaven.	5 Minutes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Becoming familiar with the merits of lady Zahra (SA). 2. The importance of being patient when explaining a concept to someone else 3. Most of the times children do not have enough patience when they want to explain a matter to their friend, hence this way they become familiar with the meaning

	Yes, my dears, the woman that we look up to as our role model; she always showed great patience and kindness to the people. She would share her great knowledge without expecting anything in return and would guide and help people to the right path. It's good for us to also learn from her, and be patient, be diligent, and be kind with others; and if we know something, we should teach it to others as well. Retrieved from Tebyan website, narrated from the 75th life lesson from the Practical Life of Lady Fatemeh al-Zahra (PBUH)		of patience and what it takes to be patient.

5	Life Lesson: Etiquette of Eating and Drinking Mentor: Alright my dears, now we want to eat something. Who's hungry? Who wants to help serving the food? Alright 4 people should come up and help spread the table cloth and two people should come up and help put the plates and ... Please Note: for refreshments, you may prepare small bites of bread and cheese or bite size cookies/sweets and arranged them on the table. Or you may also prepare the bread and cheese and allow them to make mini sandwiches. The purpose of this segment is to teach them the etiquette of drinking and eating. Hence, please pay attention to the following points and convey them to the kids. While eating highlight these points and, make sure the kids also adhere to them.	15 Minutes	1. Becoming familiar with the etiquette of eating food by mentioning a few narrations from lady Zahra (PBUH). 2. Fostering and cultivating a sense of pride in having a perfect religion,	1. Preparing refreshments such as tablecloth, plates full of snacks that are appropriate with the way it's going to be served.

Mentor: My dears! Did you all ever know that in our religion and according to the lifestyle of our Imams, we have certain rules, and codes for eating, drinking and many other good behaviors? Which today specialists are researching about it, to find the best instructions, which are healthy for the humans, have a positive outcome for the society and follow the right morals?! Yes, in our religion and the life-style of our Imam's, we have such instructions which have been said and followed 1400 years ago. And today, many specialists are just learning about these instructions, and are telling other people that it's better for them to follow these rules. Now I would like to give you all an example from lady Zahra (PBUH), who taught us a few instructions about eating the right way. So, like me, you all can be proud of having such a great lady as a teacher. Now, let's all head to class of lady Fatemeh al-Zahra (Peace Be Upon Her).

Lady Fatemeh al-Zahra, may God's blessings be upon her, while eating, she followed the best moral principles, values and health guidelines, and to guide those who loved her she stated a few instructions. She said: Those who sit around a table and eat, they must follow and know about a few important instructions, which can be divided into three parts:

The first part is "wajib" and mandatory, the 2nd part is mustahab (recommended), and following the last part is a sign of respect and shows our character.

And now the 4 instructions that are mandatory are as follows:

- 1- Understanding how and by whom these blessings have been provided for us and who has given them to us.
2. Being satisfied and happy as to what God has provided and given to us.
3. Saying the name of dear God before starting to eat, meaning to say “b-ismi-llāhi r-rahmāni r-rahīmi” (In the name of God, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful). And knowing that we are starting to eat God's blessings with God's permission.
4. And when we start to eat and when we are finished, we should thank and praise dear God.

and role models in every aspect.

3. allowing the kids to give out refreshments

4. By creating this fun atmosphere, kids will remember the mentioned points better.

5. Practically doing the points that lady Zahra (sa)recommended

	And now the 2nd part, meaning the recommended actions while eating are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Washing the hands and mouth before eating 2. Eat while you are sitting down And finally, are the signs of respect and character: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Try to take and eat the food that is placed in front of you, and in order to take food we should never extend our hands in front of someone else. 2. Take small and reasonable bites 3. Chew our food well, and never swallow it quickly 4. While eating, we should never look at someone else's face, hand or mouth. From now on let's all try to follow these instructions and teach it to others as well. So not only can we be good Muslims, but also, we can stay healthy and have good morals. Retrieved from Tebyan websites narrated from "Greatness and Spiritual Status of Lady Zahra (Salaam allah aliha)"
6	Play: A Fatemi Sacrifice (The Blessed Necklace) Narrator: One of the companions of the Prophet (SAWA) has narrated for us that one day the Messenger of God (PBUH & HP) was praying the evening prayers along with us. After the end of the prayer, in his altar (i.e.: minbar, pulpit), he turned toward the people and people came and sat around him. In the meanwhile, an old man who was dressed in old and torn clothes and could not stand on his feet due to hunger and his old age entered. The Holy Prophet (PBUH & HP) bestowed his kindness on him, asked about his health and how he is doing!	20 Minutes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Becoming familiar with the merits and exalted status of Lady Zahra (PBUH). 2. Becoming familiar with some of the companions of the Prophet (SAWA), such as Bilal, Ammar and Yasir. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To convey the message of this play, it's better that roles of the narrator and the old man is played by the mentors themselves. 2. Actors: narrator, old man, Ammar, Yasir and a slave 3. The Old man: O' Messenger of God! I am hungry, I need food. I am naked, clothe me. I am poor, give me something! Narrator: The Prophet said: I have nothing to give you, however, whoever guides another to a good deed, it is as if they have performed that good deed. Go to the house of one that loves God and his Messenger and God, and His Messenger love her too; one who prefers God to herself. Go to the house of my daughter Fatemeh (PBUH). The house of Lady Fatemeh was besides the mosque of the Holy Prophet (PBUH & HP). Then he said: O' Bilal (my dears, who knows, who Bilal was? Yes, Bilal was Prophets Mu'azen, the one who recited the call to prayers) stand up and guide this man to the house of Fatemeh (PBUH)! The old man went with Bilal. As the old man got to the house of Lady Fatemeh, he stood near the door and with a loud voice he shouted: Old man: Peace be upon you o' the Household of the Prophet! And the place of passage of angels! And O' the place where archangel Gabriel descends, whom revealed the Qur'an from the Lord of the Universe! Narrator: Lady Fatemeh (PBUH) replies: Blessings and peace of God be upon you, who are you? Old man: I am an old man living in the outskirts of the desert. I came from far away land and met your father who is the leader of the people. And O' the daughter of Muhammad		2. --	--	---	--

(PBUH & HP), I am hungry, do not have clothes, please look after me! May God's mercy be upon you!

Narrator: At that time, it had been three days that the Holy Prophet, Lady Zahra (PBUH) and Imam Ali (PBUH) had not eaten anything. And the Messenger of God (PBUH & HP) was already aware of this matter.

Lady Fatemeh (PBUH), grabbed the small sheepskin which she used as a carpet and bedding for Hassan and Hussain (PBUH) and said: O' our guest! Take this! I hope that God gives you better than this!

Old man: O' the daughter of the Prophet! I came to you complaining of hunger, and then you give me this sheepskin!??? I am hungry, what can I do with this sheepskin?

Narrator: When Lady Fatemeh (PBUH) heard this from the old man, she grabbed the necklace that Fatemeh, her cousin (Hamzah's daughter) had given as a gift to her. She unfastened it, gave it to the old man, and said: Take this, and sell it! I hope that God gives you better than this!

The old man took the necklace and returned to the masjid to see the Prophet (PBUH & HP). Prophet was still sitting with his companions. He turned to the Prophet and said:

Old man: O' Messenger of God! Your daughter Fatemeh has given me this necklace and said: Sell this! And I hope that God gives you better than this!

Narrator: The Prophet cried and said: how could this not solve your problem, while Fatemeh, the daughter of Muhammad is the leader of the women of the worlds has given this to you!

Ammar al-Yasir, moved closer, stood up and said:

Ammar: O Messenger of God! Will you give me permission to buy this necklace?

Narrator: The Holy Prophet said: buy it, because if all the God's creatures participate in buying this, God will save them from the Hell fire.

Ammar: O the Old man! How much will you sell this necklace for?

Old man: for a food once from bread and meat, an expensive fabric from Yemen which I can clothe myself with, and pray with to my lord, and for 1-dinar Gold so I can return to my family.

Narrator: Meanwhile, Ammar had sold his share from the Battle of Khaybar and had a bit of money.

Ammar (facing the old man): I will give you 20 dinars, 200 dirhams, a Yemmini fabric, and my horse. So, you may return to your house. And I will feed you with wheat and meat.

Old man: O man! How generous are you!

Narrator: He then went with Ammar and Ammar gave him what he promised. The old man returned to the Messenger of God (PBUH & HP). The Holy Prophet (PBUH & HP) asked him: are you satisfied, and did you wear clothes?

Old man: Yes! May my parents be your ransom! I became needless!

Narrator: The Prophet said: so now give a reward to Fatemeh (PBUH) for what she has done for you.

Old man: O God! You are the creator and we do not worship any God but You. You are the one who blesses us! O God! Bless Fatemeh with what no one has so far seen or heard about!

Narrator: The Messenger of God said Amen to the old man's prayer, then turns to his companions and says: God has granted three things in this world to Fatemeh (PBUH): I am her father, and no one in the world is like me. Ali (PBUH) is her husband and had he not been, there would be no suitable husband for her. Hassan and Hussein are her son who are the leaders of the youths of Paradise, while no one in this world are like these two grandchildren of the prophet. In front of the Prophet, Salman and Meqhdad were sitting. Prophet said: Should I say more about Fatimah (PBUH)?

They said: Yes, O messenger of God!

Prophet said: beware, I will tell you more about the virtues of Fatemeh: indeed, God has chosen a group of angels to protect her from above as well as from the right and left sides. They are with her in her lifetime, and her grave, constantly saluting her, her father, her husband, and her children. So, whoever visits my grave after my death, has indeed visited me in my lifetime. Whoever visits Ali ibn abi talib, has indeed visited Fatemeh. And whoever visits their children, has indeed visited both Fatemeh and Ali (PBUT).

Narrator: Ammar (after listening to the virtues) goes home, grabs the necklace, perfumes it with scent, puts it in an expensive cloth, and gives it to his slave and says:

Ammar: Take this necklace to the Holy Prophet (PBUH & HP) and after this you will belong to him.

Narrator: the slave of Ammar takes the necklace, goes to the Prophet (PBUH & HP), and retells the Prophet what Ammar had told him.

The Messenger of God (may God's blessings be Upon Him and his Holy Household) said to the slave: Go to Fatimah and give her the necklace! And after this you will belong to him.

Slave: Alright! O Messenger of God. Thank you.

Narrator: the slave took the necklace to Fatemeh (PBUH) and told her what the Messenger of God had told him.

Lady Fatimah took the necklace and freed the slave in the way of God.

After that the slave started laughing.

Lady Fatemeh (PBUH) said to the slave: why are you laughing?

Slave: I am surprised at the blessings of this necklace. Because indeed it has:

1. satisfied a hungry person
2. Clothed a naked person
3. Fulfilled the needs of another
4. Freed a slave
5. And in the end returned to its owner!

Narrator: Alright my dears did you all enjoy the play? I recommend all of you, to think more about this play and the lesson behind what lady Zahra (PBUH) did. When our mother lady Zahra (PBUH), self-sacrifices and gives out her own belongings to those in need; she for sure will never leave us alone when we need her help and dua'a. Today, it is the Imam of Our Time (AJ) who has the same good characteristic of generosity. If we ever request something from him, and want from him to ask God for something, he is soooooo great and kind that he will sure pray for us. And will request our wishes from the dear God. Now please recite a loud salwaat for the health of the Imam of Our Time (AJ), as well as to make the heart of lady Zahra (PBUH) happy!

Conclusion and reiterating the overall concepts 2. Creating a heart-felt bond with the Imam	1. It is important for this segment of the program to be done in a quiet and calm environment while paying utmost attention the prayers.

First, today we thought of our own mothers and made them a gift, thanked them for all they've done for us, and above all we thought of our beloved mother lady Zahra (SA) and became more familiar with her and her kindness. I am very happy that the best woman on this earth is my role model, I know her, love her, and try to learn good things from her. For example, today we learned how to eat correctly, and what we should do be healthier, and what we should do so others who eat with us, can enjoy their food as well, and even learn from us the right way to sit around the table and eat. So, we can tell them that we have learned it from lady Zahra (SA) and encourage them to this as well. What else did we learn; we also learned to be patient and be patient when we want to tell others something especially those who are younger than us. Because those who are younger than us, they are not that patient, and it might take them longer to understand some things. That is why it's important for us to be patient and easy-going with them. Well, Thank God, we spent our day with all of you, and had so much fun. Now, do you all like to congratulate the son of lady Zahra (sa) meaning the Imam of Our Time, on the birthday of his mother and be happy? To please the Imam of Our Time (AS) let's all pray for his return. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reciting Dua al-Faraj while towards the Qibla, and standing up out of love and respect for his eminence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ http://film.tebyan.net/film/151746 ✓ https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=0cXoTGnPljk26 {In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful O' God, send your blessing upon Muhammad and the Household of Muhammad O' God, at this moment and every moment		of Our Time and praying for his reappearance.	2. Starting the dua, after reminding the kids about the importance of praying for the Imam of Our Time (PBUH). 3. It is suggested that that while the dua is being recited, the Arabic version of the dua along with its translation in the local language to be projected simultaneously.
